Mylennium Award 2015 in University of Rome Tor Vergata

On Wednesday, April 29th at 10:30 (to 11:00) in Classroom P1, Business Administration - University of Rome Tor Vergata, Faculty of Economics - will host the road map presentation carried out by MYlennium Award 2015 - Prize Raffaele Barletta.

The contest aims at involving under-30 students and their projects in Startup, non-fiction sections, Investigative reporting, New job opportunities and Architecture.

This first edition of the award sponsored by the Barletta Group SpA, and dedicated to Raffaele Barletta founder of the group, focuses on the Generation Y, the so-called "Millennials": young people born between the eighties and early 2000. An unconventional prize which aims to enhance the excellence in terms of creativity and innovation with concrete contributions: cash prizes, jobs, publications.
